

FIASTRA ABBEY

The Abbey of Chiaravalle di Fiastra is one of the best preserved Cistercian abbeys in Italy. Here the rule "ora et labora" established by S. Benedict, besides becoming real and visible through a unique and charming architectural language, has left precious traces in the surroundings, where interesting evidences of Cistercian lifestyle can be found.